Stockholm, October 19.

ON the 17th Inſtant, about Five in the Evening, young Count Teſſin arrived here in four Days from Copenhagen, with his Daniſh Majeſty's Ratification of the Peace lately concluded between Sweden and Denmark; it happened to be the uſual Court-Day, and there was a more than ordinary Appearance at the Palace that Evening, when the King and Queen were complimented on this Occaſion by the Senators, Foreign Miniſters, and other Perſons of Diſtinction; and this Day at Noon the Peace was proclaimed with the uſual Solemnities in all the Publick Places of this City. Yeſterday, before Noon, Sir John Norris took his Leave of this Court in order to his Return homewards, on which Occaſion his Swediſh Majeſty took a rich Sword he then wore, and preſented it to him. This Morning early, that Admiral went down to the Dahlers, in order to go to Sea with the firſt fair Wind; the largeſt Ships are already fallen down to Elſnab, a Place about ſeven Leagues nearer the Sea than the Dahlers. On the 17th, the Muſcovite Adjutant-General Romantof was conducted with his Retinue from hence by a Lieutenant and 12 Dragoons towards Griſlehaven, where a Swediſh Brigantine lies ready to carry him to Abo in Finland. It is ſaid, he had a Preſent made him of Gold Medals, to the Value of 2000 Rixdollars.

Paris, Nov. 13. The Parliament which was to aſſemble Yeſterday Morning at Pontoiſe, has been transferred to Blois, each Member of that Company having received a Lettre de Cachet, enjoining them to meet there the 2d of December next. This is ſo much the more ſurpriſing, becauſe the Accommodation between the Court and them was looked upon to be in a manner concluded; but is attributed to their perſiſting to refuſe to regiſter the King's Letters Patents concerning the Pope's Conſtitution, and to the Endeavours they have lately uſed to oppoſe the Meaſures of the Court in relation to the Bank and the India Company. It is believed that the Chamber of Juſtice, which was eſtabliſhed here during the Vacation, will continue their Seſſions, and decide all ſuch Cauſes as were uſed to be brought before the Parliament. The Abbot Puceſſe, Counſellour of the Parliament, has been baniſhed by a Lettre de Cachet, to Fontarabia; which is imputed to his having ſpoken very freely againſt the Accommodation upon the Conſtitution at the laſt Meeting of the Sorbonne on the 1ſt Inſtant. The Plague has conſiderably abated in Provence, and particularly at Aix and Marſeilles, and 'tis not doubted but the approaching Winter will put an entire Stop to it. The time for depoſiting the Actions of the India Company in the Bank has been prolonged by an Arrêt of the 9th of November, to the 23d. Another Arrêt has been publiſhed annulling all the Bank Bills of 1000 and 10000 Livres, which are not employed at the End of this Month in the Manner preſcribed by former Arrêts; which has increaſed the Diſcount upon thoſe Bills.
